| | Vote: The question was put to vote. Ayes: Majority. Nays: None. Election of Johnson school council secretary The chair announced that the next item of business was the election of the Johnson School Council Secretary. The chair stated that the secretary is responsible for attending all school council meetings and preparing the official meeting minutes. This responsibility applies only to Johnson school council meetings and does not include recording minutes for FACE meetings. Completed minutes will be submitted to the school council facilitator for posting on the TUSD website for public access. The chair opened the floor for discussion. There being no further discussion, the chair declared nominations open for the office of secretary. Amanda Schmanski nominated herself. The chair called for additional nominations. Hearing no further nominations, the chair declared nominations closed. A voice vote was conducted. Members voting "Aye" indicated support for electing Amanda Schmanski as secretary. The Ayes prevailed. Amanda Schmanski was elected Secretary of the Johnson school council. |
